

Sinclair Broadcasting's decision to force their stations to air an anti-Kerry documentary days before the election is a clear example of the dangers of media consolidation.

I strongly object to Sinclairs preempting regular programming next week to air an anti-Kerry film. This is not equal time as is required by law by your Commission!

If they insist on showing this film then only fairness in broadcasting requires that they also show the Kerry film, "Going Upriver."

Sincerely,
